

CE Information for SIFI- Online (12-Weeks)

CE is provided as a complimentary benefit.

12 live-online contact hours will be provided to NYS, NJ, and CT social workers for successful completion of the SIFI course*. This includes attending 12 out of the 12 class sessions in full. Successful completion is defined as:

1. Earning your SIFI certificate
2. Attending all 12 SIFI sessions in full according to NYSED regulations*
 - a. Being signed in for a minimum of 50 consecutive minutes.
 - i. Late arrivals and early departure cannot exceed 10 minutes total.
 - ii. Being present for less than 50 minutes may jeopardize earning your CE certificate.
3. Completing the evaluation and the certificate form

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand CSSW policies and procedures in practicum education
2. Understand roles of Associate Directors and Advisors at CSSW in relation to the student's success in their practicum
3. Understand student's coursework and practicum education sequencing – enhance grasp of the relationship between course assignments, practicum assignments, and core competencies
4. Enhance ability to provide practicum instruction support from an anti-racist and anti-oppressive perspective; increase ability to hold difficult dialogues and share power in the supervision relationship

CE & Accreditation Statement:

12 live, online contact hours will be awarded for NYS, NJ and CT licensed social workers. Licensed social workers from other states must first confirm with their respective state licensing board. Columbia University School of Social Work is a CSWE accredited institution and as such, many states accept our CE hours.

CSSW is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Social Work as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed social workers. Provider #SW-0021

In accordance with the NYSED Social Work Board's requirements for CE providers. Please note that NYSED requires full attendance for CE to be awarded and for providers to maintain clear documentation of attendance. NYSED mandates that 1 CE contact hour consists of at least 50 minutes of continuous learning with no more than a 10 min break (or late start/early dismissal). Partial credit for partial attendance is not permitted under state guidelines. If you have any questions then please contact swope@columbia.edu.*
