BRAND STORY

The mission of the Columbia School of Social Work is to interrogate racism and other systems of oppression standing in the way of social equity and justice, and to foster social work education, practice, and research that strengthen and expand the opportunities, resources, and capabilities of all persons to achieve their full potential and well-being.

GOALS:
1) Create an inclusive learning and work environment that promotes diversity and excellence in research, teaching, and the training of social work professionals.

2) Partner with community service providers, advocates, and professionals across all disciplines to promote effective practices, programs, and policies that center and protect the dignity of individuals and their human rights.

3) Uphold ethical standards of competence, service, and integrity as applied locally, nationally, and globally.

BRAND VOICE:
Educational and informative. We are dedicated to social justice, social-wellness, human rights, diversity and dismantling oppressive systems.
There are two versions of the CSSW logo, a Gotham version and a Trajan version. The Gotham logo was developed as part of an effort to modernize the social work profession in the 21st century. The Trajan logo was originally created to acknowledge the school's shared identity as part of Columbia University. Both logos are valid but we are using the Gotham version as our main logo.
LOGO GUIDELINES

PROXIMITY

The height of the ‘O’ in COLUMBIA is the minimum white space needed to separate the logo from its surroundings.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Acceptable Logo Colors: blue, black and white

WHAT YOU CAN’T DO

Do not distort the logo.

Do not replace any part of the logo.

Do not ‘unlock’ or separate/rearrange sections of the logo.

Never use the crown as a standalone icon.
CSSW uses this color palette for our materials. Black and white are used when needed.
