

fabian romero P.h.C. (Purepécha) is a student in Gender, Women & Sexuality Studies at the University of Washington. fabian's academic interests include racial capitalism, settler colonialism, Black Feminist Studies, American Indian Studies, Indigenous feminism, gender and sexuality. Poetry and artistic collaboration are integral to their research that centers the performance of gender, sexuality and authenticity for queer, LGBTQ Indigenous and two-spirit people. As an interdisciplinary researcher, fabian's academic work combines fiction writing, poetry and autoethnography to theorize queer, LGBTQ and two spirit Indigenous kinship and art collaboration as vital to imagining Indigenous futures.