

ISA NOYOLA

She/her

Translatina activist and cultural organizer;
Former Deputy Director, Transgender Law
Center; Current Deputy Director, Mijente; Board Co-President, Womens March

Isa Noyola is a first generation Mexican translatina. She was the former Deputy Director at the Transgender Law Center and now the current Deputy Director at Mijente, a political, digital, and grassroots hub for Latinx and Chicanx organizing and movement building. She is a seasoned organizer, experienced facilitator, passionate activist, and a national leader in LGBTQ immigrant rights movement. She works extensively for the release of transgender women from ICE detention and an end to all deportations. Isa is also the co-president of The Womens March board and is one of cofounders of San Francisco's community based organization El/La para Translatinas. She is also on the advisory boards of Familia Trans Queer Liberation, Radical Imagination Family Fund, and the International Trans Fund. She led and organized the first ever national trans anti-violence convening that brought together over 100 activists, mostly trans women of color, to address the epidemic of violence trans communities are facing. She has appeared and profiled on CNN, MSNBC, Democracy Now, Latina Magazine, Quartz, Hello Giggle, Vice, and Broadly. Currently she is being featured in The California Museum exhibit "California Women Inspire: Celebrating Women's Equality in the Golden State".
