
sig

Join us for the seminar

Adaptation of Evidence-Based Treatments: Lessons Learned

Margarita Alegría, PhD

Professor

Harvard Medical School

Tuesday, April 5, 2016

1pm - 2 pm

Columbia School of Social Work

1255 Amsterdam Avenue, Room CO6

Dr. Alegría is the Chief of the Disparities Research Unit at Massachusetts General Hospital, and a Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School. Dr. Alegría is currently the PI of four NIH-funded research studies. Dr. Alegría has published over 200 papers, editorials, intervention training manuals, and several book chapters, on topics such as improvement of health care services delivery for diverse racial and ethnic populations and conceptual and methodological issues with multicultural populations.

HOSTED BY:

The Criminal Justice T32 Fellowship, HISTP, Center for Justice, Mailman School of Public Health, and the Columbia School of Social Work