SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN SOCIAL WORK/MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

SOCIAL WORK AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Successful graduates earn a Master of Science in Social Work and a Master of Public Administration from Columbia's School of International and Public Affairs and go on to many career paths, including managers or analysts in public agencies, legislative analysts in congressional offices, or elective office.

Dual-degree students are required to fulfill the SIPA and Social Work core requirements outlined below. For further information on the MPA degree requirements, please see the SIPA Curriculum and Faculty Bulletin, published each year. For a list of courses that fulfill core requirements, please refer to the SIPA Registration Guide produced at the beginning of each semester.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN SOCIAL WORK/MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

SOCIAL WORK AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Students enrolled in the International Affairs program receive a valuable base in both social work education, international politics and economics. Students increase and enhance their professional skills by uniting theoretical and client-based instruction in the social services and academic preparation in U.S. and international social policies and programs.

Note these students are exempt from the following CSSW courses:

- Statistics admissions requirement
- T6501-Social Work Research
- T69XX-Field of Practice course
- T6416-Program Evaluation (for SEA and AGPP)
- T7501-Clinical case evaluation (for Advanced Clinical Practice)
- Two CSSW Economics courses (for Policy Practice)
